Pay versus performance: Tackling unanswered questions

December 8, 2022 | Webinar

We invite you to watch a Davis Polk webinar on the SEC's new pay versus performance rule. Now that companies have started putting pen to paper on the required pay versus performance disclosure, a number of new questions and complexities are emerging, many of which have not yet been addressed by the SEC. Lawyers from our Executive Compensation and Corporate Governance practices discussed a high-level overview of the rule and a deeper dive into the key strategic considerations, burning questions around implementing the rule and next steps in looking ahead to the 2023 proxy season. We addressed some of the thorny issues that have been raised and opened the forum for questions from the webinar participants.
