

Creditors' guide to make-whole enforceability in bankruptcy, second edition

October 5, 2023 | Client Update

This second edition of the market-leading comprehensive guide to the current state of the law on make-wholes in bankruptcy includes updates for new case law developments. Few topics generate as much attention and commentary within the restructuring community as the treatment of make-wholes in bankruptcy, and several prominent judicial decisions revealed marked differences in the ways that courts interpret contractual and Bankruptcy Code provisions related to make-wholes.
