

The Landscape Shifts: Duties of and Risks to Directors and Officers of Insolvent Enterprises

December 7, 2022 | Articles & Books

Davis Polk partner and Restructuring co-head Marshall Huebner and associate Amber Leary recently authored “The Landscape Shifts: Duties of and Risks to Directors and Officers of Insolvent Enterprises” in Corporate Counsel. The article examines various emerging risks to directors and officers of distressed companies, including with respect to breach of duty claims, corporate communications, releases and attorney-client privilege.

Read the full article