

Developments in direct lending and private credit

April 6, 2023 | Articles & Books

Davis Polk partner Christopher Nairn-Kim recently authored “Developments in direct lending and private credit” in Thomas Reuters Practical Law. In the article, Christopher discusses key trends in loan documentation and overall deal structures, how direct lenders address concerns in loan negotiations and how the direct lending market will continue to develop.

Read the article