

The Law Reviews' The Corporate Governance Review, 13th Edition

May 18, 2023 | Articles & Books

Davis Polk partner and Europe practice head Will Pearce is delighted to be the contributing editor of the 13th edition of The Law Reviews' The Corporate Governance Review, a comprehensive overview of the corporate governance regimes in over 20 key jurisdictions worldwide. Through the lens of recent trends and developments, The Corporate Governance Review examines the most consequential rules relating to board structure and practices; director duties; corporate reporting and disclosure requirements; CSR / ESG; engagement with shareholders; and much more.

Will Pearce, executive compensation counsel Neil Sharpe and corporate associate Sophie Vacikar Bessisso contributed the guide's UK chapter.

Read the Editor's preface and UK chapter

Reproduced with permission from Law Business Research Ltd. The editor's preface and chapter was first published in The Law Reviews: The Corporate Governance Review Thirteenth Edition (Published: May 2023). For further information, please visit thelawreviews.co.uk.