

Real estate preferred equity investments: Structuring considerations

April 9, 2024 | Articles & Books

Davis Polk Real Estate practice co-head Brian Lichter and associate Jaclyn Katz authored “Real estate preferred equity investments: Structuring considerations” in Lexis Practical Guidance. In the article, the authors give an overview of real estate preferred equity transactions including rights and remedies to consider and the similarities and differences between preferred equity investments and other debt financing arrangements.

Read the full article