

US legal developments targeting ESG: Implications for the financial industry

August 12, 2025 | Articles & Books

Davis Polk counsel and Environmental practice head Loyti Cheng and counsel David Zilberberg authored “US legal developments targeting ESG: Implications for the financial industry” in the September 2025 issue of Financier Worldwide. In the piece, Loyti and David discuss the current landscape of state law restrictions on ESG, state anti-ESG enforcement proceedings and the federal government’s efforts targeting ESG as well as the industry reaction and key takeaways.

Read the full article