

FDIC proposes overhaul of IDI resolution planning rule

June 30, 2026 | Client Update

The FDIC has proposed a major overhaul of its IDI resolution planning rule that would streamline resolution submissions to focus on information that the FDIC believes is most critical. Check out our content requirements cheat sheet in the visual memo linked below. We also summarize key components of the proposed rule and compare the current rule with the proposed new approach. Comments are due August 31.
