

Lessons for the loan market from recent liability management transactions

August 5, 2020 | Articles & Books

Davis Polk partners Jason Kyrwood, James Florack, Meyer Dworkin and Kenneth Steinberg recently authored an article for the International Financial Law Review, which provides an overview of the structural elements of high-profile liability management transactions and examines practical changes that could be made to loan documentation.

Read the full article