

Top 10 Key Trends at 2020 Proxy Mid-Season

June 9, 2020 | Client Update

It is impossible to discuss this proxy season without acknowledging the impact that the COVID-19 pandemic has had and its resulting highs and lows. While the virus has upended the planning and conduct of annual shareholder meetings, it has also caused regulators, issuers, third-party vendors and other market participants to collaborate to avoid significant disruption this season. The SEC has nimbly stepped into the fray with guidance and relief for issuers. State governments have issued emergency orders or amended legislation to allow for virtual shareholder meetings. Investors and proxy advisory firms have issued more flexible policies, all of which taken together has allowed meetings in the United States to proceed. Here are the key trends we are seeing mid-season.
