

Intellectual Property and Tech Transactions Update - September 2018

September 24, 2018 | Client Update

Davis Polk is pleased to provide you with the next installment of its Intellectual Property and Tech Transactions Update, a quarterly newsletter that features summaries and analysis of recent developments in intellectual property, data privacy and cybersecurity law. In this issue, we examine some recent Supreme Court and other federal court decisions in the areas of patent, copyright and trade secret law and we examine some recent updates regarding proposed inter partes review rules and the proposed Music Modernization Act.

Davis Polk's Intellectual Property and Technology Transactions Group provides advice on corporate and commercial transactions involving intellectual property, technology, data privacy and cybersecurity matters. For more information about the group, click here. Davis Polk's IP litigators are trial lawyers with extensive experience handling intellectual property cases in courtrooms throughout the U.S. For more information about our IP litigators, click here.

If you have any questions regarding the matters covered in this publication, please reach out to any of the lawyers listed below or your usual Davis Polk contact.
