

Key CARES Act Provisions and Fed Programs for Corporates

May 22, 2020 | Client Update

The contours of the new federal programs to support businesses change almost daily. Our updated deck sets out what companies need to know about the CARES Act and other Federal Reserve programs for corporates, including an updated summary chart of the Federal Reserve programs. Banking organizations might be interested too, to better understand what their customers are able to access under these programs. Separate, previously published Davis Polk decks address the Fed's Main Street programs and the SBA Paycheck Protection Program and related Fed Paycheck Protection Program Liquidity Facility.
