

Summary of the Volcker Rule Study – Hedge Funds and Private Equity Funds

January 20, 2011 | Client Update

The study by the Financial Stability Oversight Council (“FSOC”) of the funds portion of the Volcker Rule includes useful findings and recommendations on the definitions of “hedge funds,” “private equity funds” and “banking entities,” but leaves a number of important questions unanswered. To provide an idea of the number and nature of important questions left unanswered, we have attached a chart that maps the recommendations proposed by the Securities Industry and Financial Markets Association (“SIFMA”) to the actual recommendations made in the FSOC study.

If you have any questions regarding the matters covered in this publication, please reach out to any of the lawyers listed below or your usual Davis Polk contact.

This communication, which we believe may be of interest to our clients and friends of the firm, is for general information only. It is not a full analysis of the matters presented and should not be relied upon as legal advice. This may be considered attorney advertising in some jurisdictions. Please refer to the firm's privacy notice for further details.

Related materials

Read the full update