

Impact of the California Consumer Privacy Act on M&A

June 10, 2019 | Client Update

The California Consumer Privacy Act comes into force on January 1, 2020, and will impact many companies that collect or process personal data of California residents, expanding compliance and class-action litigation risk profiles. Our memorandum highlights key features of the CCPA and related diligence, structuring and other transactional considerations for investors, purchasers and sellers involved in mergers and acquisitions.
