Regulatory Reform for Mid-Sized and Regional Banks: Where Are We at Mid-Year?

June 27, 2017 | Client Update

There has been a slow start to financial regulatory reform under the Trump Administration, but the conversation is now changing in ways that are serious and thoughtful. This note highlights the key themes that we believe are important for mid-sized and regional banks in light of recent personnel announcements, the Treasury Report and responses to the Report by key regulatory principals. It also describes what we believe will happen next.
