Bipartisan Banking Act Will Rebalance the Financial Regulatory Landscape

May 22, 2018 | Client Update

This visual memorandum describes the key changes the Bipartisan Banking Act – which the House passed today – makes to the regulation of banking organizations. The Economic Growth, Regulatory Relief and Consumer Protection Act is the first major piece of legislation to rebalance the financial regulatory landscape since the Dodd-Frank Act in 2010, and it is expected to be signed into law by the President shortly. This memorandum is color coded for those who want to look only at the changes that affect their own organization.
