

FCA consultation on rules for SPACs listing in London

May 6, 2021 | Client Update

On 30 April 2021, the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) published a consultation paper on proposed changes to the Listing Rules that apply to special purpose acquisition companies (SPACs). These changes to the Listing Rules are intended to provide a more flexible regime for larger SPACs, while still ensuring that investors are protected, and potentially resulting in a wider range of large SPACs deciding to list in the UK.
