

Public Investment Funds 2022

April 27, 2022 | Articles & Books

Davis Polk partner Gregory Rowland and counsel Sarah Kim served as contributing editors for the fifth edition of International Comparative Legal Guide: Public Investment Funds 2022. Greg and Sarah authored the “USA” chapter. Greg also contributed to the preface and “The Current State of U.S. Public Cryptocurrency Funds” chapter.

The fifth edition provides broad overviews of the general regulatory framework for public investment funds in 17 jurisdictions, as well as two expert chapters on topics of particular interest. As the regulations in the financial services industry continue to evolve in response to new developments and obstacles in financial systems globally, it will be important for legal professionals and industry participants to have up-to-date resources, such as this guide, for practical insight relating to different jurisdictions.

Read the full chapters