

Liability management goes mainstream

May 23, 2023 | Articles & Books

Davis Polk partners Jason Kyrwood, Brian Resnick and Ken Steinberg authored “Liability management goes mainstream” in Financier Worldwide. With liability management transactions increasingly being viewed as legitimate long-term capital and liquidity management strategies – much like managing maturity profiles through refinancing, buybacks or amend and extend transactions – the authors discuss types of liability management transactions and recent developments in these transactions.

Read the full article