

Structuring cross-border public M&A transactions: Key considerations

June 20, 2023 | Articles & Books

Davis Polk partner and Europe practice head Will Pearce and counsel Joe Scrace and Dominic Foulkes authored “Structuring cross-border public M&A transactions: Key considerations” in Financier Worldwide. In the article, the authors discuss corporate, tax and governance considerations when structuring cross-border public M&A transactions involving a bidder in one jurisdiction and a publicly-traded target company in another.

Read the full article