

In-Depth: Corporate Governance, Edition 14

April 29, 2024 | Articles & Books

Davis Polk partner and Europe practice head Will Pearce served as the contributing editor of Lexology's 14th edition of In-Depth: Corporate Governance (formerly The Corporate Governance Review), a comprehensive overview of the corporate governance regimes in key jurisdictions worldwide. Through the lens of recent trends and developments, In-Depth: Corporate Governance examines the most consequential rules relating to board structure and practices, director duties, corporate reporting and disclosure requirements, CSR / ESG, engagement with shareholders, and much more.

Will Pearce, counsel Neil Sharpe and associate Sophie Vacikar Bessisso contributed the guide's UK chapter.

Read the Editor's preface and UK chapter

The editor's preface and UK chapter was first published in In-Depth: Corporate Governance, Fourteenth Edition (Published: April 2024). For further information, please visit lexology.com.