

US: How foreign is too foreign?

November 19, 2019 | Articles & Books

Davis Polk partners Timothy Graulich and Elliot Moskowitz authored a chapter in GRR's Americas Restructuring Review 2020 titled "US: How Foreign is Too Foreign?"

In the chapter, Tim and Elliot review the history and current state of case law addressing whether, under the US Bankruptcy Code, a trustee's power to recover fraudulently transferred property applies extraterritorially to property that was transferred between foreign parties as well as related questions over the foreign or domestic nature of such transfers.

Read the full chapter