

Conversations in corporate crisis management

September 12, 2024 | Webinar

We are pleased to share our webinar featuring Davis Polk lawyer Bill Hochul, a longtime general counsel and federal prosecutor, exploring the most critical corporate crises facing companies today. In this discussion, Martine Beamon, co-head of our White Collar Defense & Investigations practice, speaks with Bill about tackling crises ranging from unexpected business interruptions to government investigations to cyberattacks and more.

Topics include:

- How to proactively prepare for the most common business crises
- Developing a crisis response plan and team
- The most common lifecycle and trajectory of a crisis
- When and how to effectively use in-house and external legal teams along with other outside experts
- The importance of communication
