

PIK interest: Negotiation and documentation considerations

February 6, 2025 | Articles & Books

Davis Polk partner Meyer Dworkin and associate Matthew Wiener authored “PIK interest: Negotiation and documentation considerations” in Thomson Reuters’ Practical Law.

In the article, the authors examine the different formulations and specific characteristics of payment-in-kind (PIK) interest, highlight negotiation and documentation considerations for practitioners, and introduce the concept of synthetic PIK.

Read the full article