

The future of payments and banking under the Trump administration

January 21, 2025 | Client Update

A federal payments charter has been on the policy agenda since the first Trump administration and has garnered support from policymakers on both sides of the aisle. New technologies that can be used to conduct payments activities, such as stablecoins, have been the subject of similar regulatory debates. In anticipation of this debate reemerging, this deck reviews the policy and legal history surrounding these issues.
