

Use of preferred equity in private equity net asset value facilities

January 27, 2025 | Articles & Books

Davis Polk partners Meyer Dworkin and David Kennedy and counsel Kwesi Larbi-Siaw authored “Use of preferred equity in private equity net asset value facilities” in the ninth edition of Global Legal Insights’ Fund Finance 2025. In the chapter, the authors examine several important considerations and recent developments with respect to private equity net asset value (NAV) facilities, especially the increasing use of preferred equity structures.
