

Board structure and composition considerations

June 23, 2025 | Articles & Books

Davis Polk partner Stephen Byeff, counsel Ida Araya-Brumskine and associate Julia Hirschberg contributed a chapter to the NYSE's Public Company Series: Board Structure and Composition.

In the chapter, they provide an overview of key board structure and composition considerations, including board leadership structure, board size, director tenure and board refreshment, director skills and experience, and director independence.

Partner and Corporate Governance practice head Joe Hall and Stephen also served as consulting editors for the book.

Read the full chapter