

Practice Notes: Hong Kong virtual asset laws and regulations

November 27, 2025 | Articles & Books

Davis Polk's Lok Cheung and Martin Rogers contributed three articles on virtual asset laws and regulations in Hong Kong to Thomson Reuters Practical Law's "Practice Notes" series. The articles provide an overview of regulations of virtual asset-related activities in Hong Kong, asset tokenization and the legal framework for taking security over crypto assets.

Davis Polk's market-leading FinTech and virtual asset team in Hong Kong has deep experience working with multiple licensed virtual asset trading platforms, brokers, custodian, market makers and token issuers.
