

The continuing use of preferred equity in private equity net asset value facilities

January 23, 2026 | Articles & Books

Davis Polk partners Meyer Dworkin and David Kennedy and counsel Kwesi Larbi-Siaw authored “The continuing use of preferred equity in private equity net asset value facilities” in the 10th edition of Global Legal Insights' Fund Finance 2026.

In the chapter, the authors examine several important considerations and recent developments with respect to private equity net asset value (NAV) facilities, especially the continuing use of preferred equity structures.

Read the full chapter

This article was first published in GLI - Fund Finance 2026.