

3 reasons we need digital asset market structure legislation

March 5, 2026 | Articles & Books

Davis Polk partners Gabe Rosenberg and Zach Zweihorn and associate Billy Hicks authored “3 reasons we need digital asset market structure legislation” in Law360. In the article, the authors provide three explanations for why market structure legislation is important:

- To incentivize U.S. innovation
- To increase U.S. attractiveness
- To encourage agency decision-making
