

A range of outcomes on merger challenges: recent developments and strategic implications

June 24, 2020 | Articles & Books

Davis Polk partners Arthur Burke, Jesse Solomon and Micah Block and associates Janet Jones-Duffey and Keith Dore authored "A Range of Outcomes on Merger Challenges: Recent Developments and Strategic Implications," an article in Daily Journal. The article discusses how recent developments in government merger challenges have resulted in more variable results at trial, what accounts for these divergent outcomes and the strategic implications for merger clearance.

Read the Full Article >