

Special issues in mass torts

January 4, 2021 | Articles & Books

Davis Polk Restructuring Group co-head Marshall Huebner and counsel Christopher Robertson recently authored “Special Issues in Mass Torts” in the December 2020 edition of Legal Era Magazine. The article discusses best practices for resolving mass tort litigation through the chapter 11 process. The article also notes that to have a successful resolution, it is important to apply lessons learned from previous solutions to find new and creative solutions to navigate bankruptcy and mass torts.

Read the full article