

Financial Conduct Authority Sets Out Its Approach to Assessing Listing Applications from Cannabis-related Companies

September 21, 2020 | Client Update

On 18 September 2020, the FCA set out guidance on its approach to assessing listing applications from cannabis-related companies. The FCA has provided high-level guidance in relation to the following types of issuers: recreational cannabis companies, UK-based companies and overseas companies. A consultation will follow in due course.
