

Investment Association Outlines Shareholder Expectations on Executive Pay in Light of Coronavirus

April 30, 2020 | Client Update

On 27 April 2020, following requests for guidance by remuneration committees of UK listed companies and their advisors, the Investment Association (“IA”) published guidance outlining the expectations of shareholders on executive pay in light of the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic. The guidance builds upon commentary on executive pay considerations made in other recent IA publications in response to the economic climate brought on by the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic (including the open letter to the chairs of FTSE 350 companies), and reflects the broader focus by regulators and investor bodies on the importance of issuers maintaining robust corporate governance procedures at this time.

If you have any questions regarding the matters covered in this publication, please reach out to any of the lawyers listed below or your usual Davis Polk contact.

Will Pearce

+44 20 7418 1448
will.pearce@davispolk.com

Simon Witty

+44 20 7418 1015
simon.witty@davispolk.com

This communication, which we believe may be of interest to our clients and friends of the firm, is for general information only. It is not a full analysis of the matters presented and should not be relied upon as legal advice. This may be considered attorney advertising in some jurisdictions. Please refer to the firm's privacy notice for further details.

Related materials

Read the full update