

HSR Act Update: Agencies to Resume Granting Early Termination of Waiting Period

March 30, 2020 | Client Update

Effective today, the FTC and DOJ will resume processing requests for early termination of the HSR Act waiting period.

In light of the success of the first two weeks of the temporary e-filing program, the FTC and DOJ have announced they will return to processing requests for early termination when both have determined that no enforcement action will be taken during the waiting period.
