

Some Questions Being Considered About Stock Buybacks in These Volatile Markets

March 9, 2020 | Client Update

U.S. and global stock markets have experienced a significant downturn and increased volatility stemming from the coronavirus (COVID-19), this weekend's shock in the commodity markets and related factors.

Our alert highlights some of the questions we have been getting on techniques and best practices for possible buybacks, given the potential opportunity to buy back stock at materially reduced prices.
