

Delaware Court Declines to Pull Airgas Poison Pill

February 16, 2011 | Client Update

In a much-anticipated decision issued last night in Air Products v. Airgas, Chancellor Chandler declined to compel the board of directors of Airgas, Inc. to redeem the Company's poison pill. In an extensive opinion, Chancellor Chandler upheld the Board's ability to use the poison pill to block shareholders from accepting a "best and final," $5.9 billion bid by Air Products and Chemicals, Inc., which the Board believed was financially inadequate. Shortly after the decision was released, Air Products withdrew its offer for the Company.

If you have any questions regarding the matters covered in this publication, please reach out to any of the lawyers listed below or your usual Davis Polk contact.

George R. Bason, Jr.
+1 212 450 4340
george.bason@davispolk.com

Arthur F. Golden
+1 212 450 4388
arthur.golden@davispolk.com

Lawrence Portnoy
+1 212 450 4874
lawrence.portnoy@davispolk.com

This communication, which we believe may be of interest to our clients and friends of the firm, is for general information only. It is not a full analysis of the matters presented and should not be relied upon as legal advice. This may be considered attorney advertising in some jurisdictions. Please refer to the firm's privacy notice for further details.

Related materials

021611_airgas.poison.pill.html