

OCC Seeks Input on Volcker Regulation Reforms

August 2, 2017 | Client Update

The Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC) issued a Notice today requesting public comment on potential changes to the regulations implementing the Volcker Rule. The Notice focuses on four topics—the scope of entities subject to the Volcker Rule, the definition of proprietary trading and scope of exemptions from that definition, the covered fund definition and Super 23A provisions, and compliance program and metrics—though makes clear that the OCC invites comments on all aspects of the Volcker Rule regulations and their administration. Comments are due 45 days after the Notice is published in the Federal Register.

If you have any questions regarding the matters covered in this publication, please reach out to any of the lawyers listed below or your usual Davis Polk contact.

Gabriel D. Rosenberg

+1 212 450 4537

gabriel.rosenberg@davispolk.com

This communication, which we believe may be of interest to our clients and friends of the firm, is for general information only. It is not a full analysis of the matters presented and should not be relied upon as legal advice. This may be considered attorney advertising in some jurisdictions. Please refer to the firm's privacy notice for further details.

Related materials

Read the full update