

Antitrust Update - July 2006

July 14, 2006 | Client Update

We report three significant developments in antitrust law which have occurred since our last update in late April. As described below, the Federal Trade Commission (“FTC”) recently challenged a consummated transaction that was not reportable under the Hart-ScottRodino Act. In addition, the Supreme Court issued writs of certiorari in two antitrust cases- one which concerns the pleading standards for alleging an antitrust conspiracy and one which considers the appropriate standard for finding a violation of Section 2 of the Sherman Act for “predatory overbidding.”
